Dr. Rhys R. Lloyd Describes Rise of German Reformation and Its Leader.

Dr. Rhys R. Lloyd of Chicago held the attention of a large audience for two hours at Barratt hall last night, when he gave the second of the series of three recitals, "The Pivot of the Period, or Luther and His Times."

Dr. Lloyd's vivid portrayal of Luther's career showed that he has made a thorough study of his subject.

Dr. Lloyd, after describing the political and social condition of Europe just prior to the birth of Luther, gave a detailed account of Luther's life, and described in clear and concise language the causes that impelled him to begin his crusade. He said that Luther was the son of a German copper miner, who labored hard to educate his family and provide for his children. His mother was a solemn and stern woman, who would often whip the boy till the blood flowed from his body. At 14 he was sent to school far from his home, and while singing in the streets attracted prior to the birth of Luther, gave a dewhile singing in the streets attracted the notice of a wealthy woman, who took him into her home and kept him | tioner. for four years. In after years he never forgot her maxim: "There is nothing more beautiful than the love of husband for wife when it is in the fear of the Lord.'

Luther afterward went to Wittenberg university, where he earned a master's degree. His parents wanted him to become a lawyer, but he joined the Augustinian order and became a monk. It was while he was professor at Wittenberg that the crisis came which caused his excommunication by Pope Julius. The sale of indulgences by the papacy to obtain funds for the carrying on of the war instituted by the pope's kingly cousin, was what caused Luther to rebel.

Dr. Lloyd then told of Luther's journey to Wurms, at the command of "Frederick the Wise," to explain his apostacy, and when he refused to retract what he had written, how the pope demanded of Emperor Charles the Fifth of Germany that he be executed. Then followed Luther's trip back to Wittenberg, and his capture by friends and his subsequent incarceration in the castle in the Black forest. In conclusion, Dr. Lloyd said:

"Luther organized churches, quelled disorder, introduced schools for persons of all classes, and thus became the father of the German system of education-a system that has put his country ever since in the van of learning. His appeal to the German nobility urged all the Germans to unite into one nationa movement only realized in 1870, the year when the temporal power was forever lost. Luther was the liberator of modern thought and the pioneer of modern civilization. Through him domestic life was hallowed; for he not only urged the priests to marry, but he also gave them in his own marriage and happy home an example which they delight to follow."

The speaker concluded with an eloquent exordium of Luther.

ORDER 10,000 WHITE

and Streets for Wear on Mothers' Day.

One of the largest orders for flowers that ever left this city was filed yesterday afternoon with a California florist by the flower committee of the Mothers' day observance. The order included 10,000 of the choicest white carnations to be delivered on the Thursday preceding Mothers' day.

While any white flower may be used as the floral emblem on this day, the fining company for $5,760 for personal injuries, was awarded $912 yesterday. The amount of damages awarded was evidently a second or sec evidently a compromise, as both plain-tiff and defendant had to pay their own costs.

Judge John A. Marshall adjourned court till Friday.
